REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal electors of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of national trial and peril, will sustain the state and federal administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserved, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected throughout every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the Republicans in sending delegates to this convention.

Each Assembly and Senatorial district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention.

B. F. HOPKINS, W. M. GRISWOLD,
LUTHER A. COLE, H. H. GLIMES,
S. J. TODD, J. M. BURGESS.

Dated August 6, 1862.

Gen. Pope Pursuing Jackson.

It is now certain that Jackson has retreated in haste from the late battle-field towards Gordonsville, leaving his dead and wounded. Gen. Buford, with his cavalry, is close after him. The flight of the enemy was conducted with great confusion.

Last Day for Enlistments.

To-morrow is the last day for enlistments under the two calls from the government. After that will come the draft. Those who would enlist and secure the bounty of $60 offered by the county, must do so before to-morrow night. We hope our quota will be made up at that time, but it will require some exertion to secure that desirable object. There has been a commendable liberality in subscribing for the county scrip, and we are quite confident that the whole amount needed will be raised. The bounty offered is very liberal and the opportunity of sharing in it ought not to be lost by indecision. Those who intend to enlist should make up their minds at once, and go straight to a recruiting office and enter their names.

Important Decision.

Gov. Salomon, learning that many residents, who had only taken out their first papers were claiming exemption from draft on account of not being full citizens, telegraphed to headquarters for instructions on the subject. He got an answer yesterday, which stated that a resident having got out his first papers, and not voted, is not liable to draft; but if he has got out his first papers, and only voted once, at any election, then he is liable to draft.

The Third Wisconsin.

The statement that the third Wisconsin was twice repulsed in the battle of Cedar Run, is probably untrue. An account of the battle in the Washington Star says "not a man of Gen. Banks' corps, or, indeed, of any other, showed the white feather." This is a later statement than that in which the third Wisconsin was alluded to. We shall not credit the story until compelled to do so by better evidence than we have yet seen.

Reported Capture of Col. Barstow.

A letter from Dr. Lane, of this city, dated Leavenworth, Aug. 8th, says: "We have just heard from Fort Scott, and learn that Col. Barstow and staff have been taken prisoners by Coffey, Jayhawk, having 1800 men. Dr. Reynolds is among the party."

Since the above was written, we find the following in the Chicago Times of to-day:

St. Louis, Aug. 13.—Col. Barstow, of the 3d Wisconsin cavalry, with three companies of that regiment, left Fort Scott to reinforce Capt. Conkey, of the same regiment, stationed at Monticello, Jasper Co., about fifty miles below Fort Scott. He was fallen upon by a regiment of rebels, who completely surrounded his little command, and compelled him to fight his way out, which he did, killing a captain and lieutenant, and fifteen privates of the enemy.

Col. Barstow had a few men wounded and four or five taken prisoners, besides losing his transportation, hospital stores and ambulances. The federals made good their retreat to Fort Scott.

A large rebel force is reported in the southwest.

Col. Turchin, who has been on trial before a court martial at Huntsville, Ala., charged with permitting his soldiers to commit depredations upon the people of Athens, Ala., has been acquitted.

A later telegraphic despatch from Col. Turchin says "he has been dismissed from the service. He is, however, by appointment made a Brigadier General since the charges were preferred, and of course, if he chooses will remain in the service."

The new method adopted by generals in the field in regard to the negroes is to impress as many as they want, keep an account of what they do, and wait for a civil court to declare their freedom; or, as Gen. Williams did at Vicksburg after using them to dig the canal, turn them ashore to shift for themselves. This is an acknowledgment of the existence of slavery by the national military power, while its inhumanity and bad policy must be apparent to all.

If the government sanctions this its progress is backward on this question, instead of forward. We hope no such sanction will be given.

Hon. I. N. Arnold has been nominated for re-election in the Chicago district.

Five hundred Camp Douglas prisoners have taken the oath of allegiance.

The best thinkers are those who are not only thinkers but actors.

FORT SCOTT, Ks., Aug. 5.

Messrs.—The Southern Expedition are having a regular quarrel, and are fast retreating from Ft. Gibson. The cause we cannot tell, but we may safely conjecture is on account of the arrest of General Weer, and the obstinacy of the officers in their refusal to obey his commands. The 2d O. V. C. arrived here yesterday, and the field officers are reported under arrest, on the charge of mutiny. They are deeply chagrined at the movements. The 9th Wisconsin is in the same predicament, and are making their way towards Fort Scott, and will probably arrive here to-morrow. The trial of the officers will be held here, according to martial law, and Col. Barstow will attend to it.

It is extremely warm about Fort Scott, and the sick in the hospitals are dropping off at the rate of from one to five per day. About twenty deaths have occurred within the past week.

GARRETTSVILLE, Wis., Aug. 9, 1862.

On the morning of the 6th inst., this Brigade consisting of the 6th, 2d and 7th Wis. Regiments and 19th Indiana Regiment with 1st New Hampshire Battery and 3d Indiana Cavalry started on an expedition with the intention of destroying the railroad near Hanover Junction. We started at 2 o'clock in the morning. The 6th Wis. Regiment and two companies of Indiana Cavalry and two pieces of 1st New Hampshire Battery took the road via Spotsylvania Court House, Col. Cutler commanding while the rest of the expedition took the road via Hamburg Post Office, Gen. Gibbons commanding. The weather was excessively hot. We reached Hamburg Post Office at 12 o'clock and were expecting to rest there till evening having marched seventeen miles. But before we had quite reached this place the booming of cannon was heard in the advance and in a moment after the Cavalry came in full mail closely pursued by the cavalry of the enemy. Our regiment had the advance. Guns were at once loaded, the artillery unlimbered and placed in position and their fire opened. They were 12 pounder Napoleon guns and made sonorous music. B and E companies were deployed as skirmishers to the right and left of the road and my company advanced in line down the road to support them. Thus we advanced slowly for half a mile when my company was also deployed as skirmishers forming the right of the line and the advance continued for some distance till finally we were halted in a corn field and staid there for an hour or so. Here the heat was terrible as not a breath of air could be felt while the corn furnished no protection from the vertical rays of the sun. After staying in this corn till 3 or 4 o'clock we returned to the Post Office the enemy having fled. During the skirmish six of my men fell out from exhaustion and were sent to the rear. They were Corporal Andrew Douglas, privates Herman J. Langhoff, Hugh Murray, George Bachelder, Charles W. Atherton and John J. Little. They were among the most hardy men of the regiment and of undoubted courage. We staid at Hamburg Post Office that night and in the morning advanced slowly with skirmishers deployed some seven miles towards the rail road when the booming of cannon in our rear told us the enemy were engaging General Hatch, who with two regiments had come out to Hamburg to support us. We started back to his aid and pursued the enemy back to Massaponiaca creek, that day marching twenty-one miles with the thermometer at near 100, shelling them with artillery and annoying them with cavalry as they retreated and killing some seven or ten of them. The enemy's forces were exclusively cavalry and artillery.

The Fifth has just received a new outfit of clothes, for which the men will be charged; this is to recompense for the gray uniform they threw away last fall.

P. S.—Since I wrote the above I have learned that about ten thousand of our men crossed the river to-day, and now the place so often occupied by rebel pickets is in our possession.

The signals tell us the enemy are building a battery below us to blockade the river and if that be so, look for some work soon.

We hear almost daily that the famous rauts at Richmond are almost done and will soon be down here. A man right from there, came here last night and says she is nearly ready.

I know not what will be done here, but everything looks like some work soon—All we want now is men, and plenty of them.

The signals tell us the enemy are building a battery below us to blockade the river and if that be so, look for some work soon.

The hospital boats Kennebeck, C. Vanderbilt, and Louisiana went up to City Point yesterday, and loaded with sick and wounded and returned to-day.

The weather is cool here now and pleasant; the men on shore are resting now and getting better.

U. S. STEAM SHIP THE WACHUSSETT, James River near Harrison's Bar, August 3, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE:

Since I wrote you last we have moved up the river a little. On the 23rd ult., the cheering intelligence that six rebel steamers were coming down here was signalled to us from the Galena. This boat was then getting under way to move a few yards further out, and we at once came up near the ground of the Galena's anchorage, where we anchored and put the vessel in trim for the fight. The upper timbers were all let down—the grappings were ready—then the small arms carefully loaded and handy—the scaling, or rather boarding ladders were ready, and we waited the approach of the monster. After waiting very anxiously for about six hours the news came that the supposed rams had gone back to their nest once more. Thus the fight of this visit passed away, and the next day the cables were overhauled, and all that could be spared were converted into armor for the part of the ship where the engine lies.

On the night of the 1st, the rebels came down on the side of the river opposite our transport depot and opened on our transports and the camp near by, a terrible shower of shot and shell. The night was dark and as their aim was uncertain, the shot nearly all went over the vessels and struck into the camps on the shore. As usual, this vessel was all unprepared for action—no spring on the cable—gun tackles all tied up snug, and guns unshotted. After about an hour's hard work and tall swearing, one gun was brought to bear on the enemy, but by this time the enemy were nearly silenced by other boats towed down the river. At first our loss was estimated at about a dozen killed and wounded, but when the real count was made we found it to be about fifty. A member of the signal corps was cut open by a shell.

CAMP D 2D REGIMENT, Wis. Vol.

Opposite Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 9, 1862.

On the morning of the 5th inst, this Brigade consisting of the 6th, 2d and 7th Wis. Regiments and 19th Indiana Regiment with 1st New Hampshire Battery and 3d Indiana Cavalry started on an expedition with the intention of destroying the rail road near Hanover Junction. We started at 2 o'clock in the morning. The 6th Wis. Regiment and two companies of Indiana Cavalry and two pieces of 1st New Hampshire Battery took the road via Spotsylvania Court House, Col. ROCKFORD CITY BONDS IN REBESLDOM.—The Register understands that $10,000 of our city bonds, issued as a loan to aid the building of the Kansas road, are now held by a secessionist residing in one of the southern states. It is the entire amount of $50,000 was in rebel hands, and the bonds confiscated, it would suit us better. But $10,000 at one stroke will do pretty well. Let it be confiscated.—Rockford Democrat.

Unless the people of Rockford levy a tax to pay in advance the principal of those bonds, the feelings of some "erring brother" will be hurt.

DUTY OF ASSESSORS.—Assessors have no authority, under the law, to omit the name of any man, within the prescribed age for military service, from their lists of enrollment. They are not appointed to enquire into the physical condition of the person to be enrolled. All they have to do is to take down the name, and if in a single instance an assessor has been known to omit a name because physical disqualification was urged, he should be held responsible. He takes authority not vested in him.

A WHOLE PRINTING OFFICE ENLISTED.—The last Albany (Green county) Times gives notice that the paper will be suspended in consequence of the enlistment of the junior editor, two journeymen and the d—l belonging to the establishment. Hurrah for the Times!

RECRUITING COMMISSIONS.—In addition to those previously announced, commissions have been issued to George A. Young, R. J. Thomas and James Mills, Janesville, and M. J. Foreman and E. L. Wright, Rock county.

Capt. J. W. Polleys is major 14th regt., vice Ward promoted.

Remember the grand mass meeting and "pic nic" to-morrow. Arrangements are completed for a large gathering, and a fine time is anticipated.

Let all, as far as possible, be on the grounds when the train arrives, quarter before twelve. All who desire, can go to Chicago on the excursion train, which leaves at 4 p. m., for $1.

GEO. B. ELY, Captain
Co. D 2d Wis. Vol.

Hon. I. N. Arnold has been nominated for re-election in the Chicago district.

Five hundred Camp Douglas prisoners have taken the oath of allegiance.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.

A long correspondence is published between Generals Halleck, U. S. A., and Lee of the confederate army. The latter inquires into the facts of the hanging of Mumford at New Orleans and Owens in Missouri, also the imprisonment of confederate citizens refusing to take the oath of allegiance to the United States; also regarding Hunter's saving of slaves against their masters in South Carolina, and Gen. Phillips at New Orleans; also concerning Gen. Fitch, who is reported to have murdered two peaceful citizens because one of his men invading our country was killed by an unknown person while defending his home.

I know not what will be done here, but everything looks like some work soon—All we want now is men, and plenty of them.

The signals tell us the enemy are building a battery below us to blockade the river and if that be so, look for some work soon.

The hospital boats Kennebeck, C. Vanderbilt, and Louisiana went up to City Point yesterday, and loaded with sick and wounded.

The Fifth has just received a new outfit of clothes, for which the men will not be charged; this is to recompense for that gray uniform they threw away last fall.

P. S.—Since I wrote the above I have learned that about ten thousand of our men crossed the river to-day, and now the place so often occupied by rebel pickets is in our possession.

ROCKFORD CITY BONDS IN REBESLDOM.—The Register understands that $10,000 of our city bonds, issued as a loan to aid the building of the Kansas road, are now held by a secessionist residing in one of the southern states. It is the entire amount of $50,000 was in rebel hands, and the bonds confiscated, it would suit us better. But $10,000 at one stroke will do pretty well. Let it be confiscated.—Rockford Democrat.

Unless the people of Rockford levy a tax to pay in advance the principal of those bonds, the feelings of some "erring brother" will be hurt.

DUTY OF ASSESSORS.—Assessors have no authority, under the law, to omit the name of any man, within the prescribed age for military service, from their lists of enrollment. They are not appointed to enquire into the physical condition of the person to be enrolled. All they have to do is to take down the name, and if in a single instance an assessor has been known to omit a name because physical disqualification was urged, he should be held responsible. He takes authority not vested in him.

Gen. Hatch had, on the morning of the 6th, sent all the men who had given out in our command and which Gen. Gibbons had left at Hamburgh back to Fredericksburg. But when they reached Massaponichs creek, the trains bringing us provisions and the wagons taking back the sick were attacked and all the sick of the three regiments under Gen. Hatch, who with two regiments had come out to Hamburgh to support us. We staid back to his aid and pursued the enemy back to Massaponichs creek, that day marching twenty-one miles with the thermometer at near 100, shelling them with artillery and annoyng them with cavalry as they retreated and killing some seven or ten of them. The enemy's forces were exclusively cavalry and artillery.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,

Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Journal.

The importance of movements now in progress in certain portions of our armies in Virginia, cannot be over estimated. Details, however, cannot be given for some days.

As particulars of the late battle come in it appears more and more clearly that two Ohio regiments bore the brunt of the action—the loss of the Fifth, from Cincinnati, and the Seventh from Cleveland, are were attend to it.

It seems that New York and some other eastern states, have authority to continue recruiting for volunteers till the 1st of September, secretary Stanton having concluded that it will take to that time to make arrangements for drafting, to get enrolments completed, &c.

Gen. Halleck has decided that the short est way is the best for putting a stop to rebel insolence, in constantly threatening what terrible things they will do if we don't continue our conciliating principles.

He has enclosed in an envelope to Mr. Davis, letter about Pope, the rebel adjutant general, and other papers forwarded to him by rebel authorities, and returned them to Richmond without one word of answer, the inference of course being that they were too insulting to receive any attention.

Dated August 14, 1862.

J. H. BRADLEY, Republican
A. M. CARTER, County Committee
W. A. NORTON.

The adjourned War Meeting will be held at the court room this evening.

ENLISTMENTS.—We learn that Captain Miles' company is full, and that enlistments elsewhere are doing well.

RECRUTS FOR THE REGULAR ARMY.—Lt. Aiken, who left this city last week Thursday with a squad of men, writes from New York that he arrived there safely, and authorizes the offer of $100 bounty for recruits for the regular army, and $2 to any citizen who will procure a recruit.

A RARE ENTERTAINMENT.—The exhibition at Lappin's Hall to-night will undoubtedly attract a large crowd. Prof. Hamburjer's great feat of apparently killing a boy and restoring him to life, is the only attempt made in this country to perform that wonderful exploit of the India jugglers. This alone, if there were no other attractions, would fill the hall. The Professor, however, generously proposes to donate a portion of the proceeds to the aid of volunteers' families, and the patriotically disposed can unite a laudable object with amusement.

QUOTA FULL.—We learn that Winnebago county has raised her quota of men under the two calls, and has 100 over.

GAME.—The Brothard Independent says:—Messrs. Black and Smith of Janesville, visited our town yesterday, and in company with Messrs. Cook, Seeger, Halstead and Taylor took a turn "into the country" and bagged 104 chickens.

In the evening about thirty were drawn from the bag, cooked and served up by our host and hostess, friend Halstead and lady—of the Manley House in the rarest style of the season. Who would live in brick and mortar and suffocate in cities, when the fresh air of the prairie, myriads of game and such hotels as the Manley house invite to health and luxury? Not we.

GREEN COUNTY.—We learn from the Monroe Sentinel that up to Wednesday that county had raised 280 volunteers. Their quota is 417.

CHANGE OF MAIL ROUTE TIME.—The mail time on the route between this city and Madison, via Union and Evansville, has been changed so that the mail leaves here Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and returns Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. This change has been made through the efforts of the contractor, J. E. Powers, and materially accommodates the people on the route.

RECRUITING.—We are informed that Ira C. Jenks will continue the recruiting at the office of Capt. Miles, after Capt. M.'s company is filled.

FIREMEN NOT EXEMPT.—It is not certain after all that firemen are exempt from the draft. The Milwaukee Sentinel says that, under the construction given to the recent order of the Secretary of War, firemen and others, exempted by our state law from home militia duty, will probably not be considered exempt from military duty in the event of drafting for service in the field. The state law refers to state calls, and exempts no one from obligations to the federal government.

If firemen are not exempt, is anybody else, except for age and disability?

CHANGE OF LOCATION.—Mrs. E. S. Anderson's female seminary has been removed to the late residence of Gov. Barstow, in this city.

The mothers, wives, sisters, and intimate female friends of the 13th regiment, will meet at Lappin's Hall on Tuesday afternoon next, at three o'clock. All such relatives and friends are earnestly invited to be present.

RECRUTS FOR THE TWELFTH BATTERY.—Mr. E. G. Harlow, of this city, has been authorized to recruit fifty men in this city, for the 12th Wisconsin battery, Gen. Hamilton's division, near Corinth, and has been tendered the position of 1st lieutenant.—Mr. H. will make an excellent officer.

P. S.—Since the above was in type, a telegraphic dispatch has been received from the Governor, stating that the fifty men will be counted in our quota. The thing is, therefore, settled, and Lieut. Harlow will immediately open a recruiting office at the drug store of G. R. Curtis. This will be a fine opportunity for our young men to join the most desirable service in the army. The ranks will fill up soon, and those who intend to enlist must hurry up.

The quota of Michigan under the first call is reported full. It is thought there will be no difficulty in avoiding a draft, by meeting all the requisitions of the general government.

Pimples and Skin Diseases.—Are the result of impure blood. The blood becomes thick and clogged. The skin is not able to cast off the impurities so important to health. How many young men and women are subject to this disease? Those who have blotsches, who are endeavoring to remove them by the use of soaps and washes of various kinds. This is very dangerous and should never be practised by persons afflicted with sores and eruptions. Should they dry them up by external applications, for in this way will they drive in the humors and produce ill health. No mother thinks of ever her child afflicted with foolish diseases.
